Date: 23/06/2020

CICULAR

Sub: HSD – Rural posting of outgoing interns from Medical Colleges – Time Limit for joining duty – reg.

Ref: 1. G.O (Rt) No. 716/2020/H&FWD dtd. 14/4/2020

2. This office order No. EA 2 – 26220/2020/DHS dtd. 29/04/2020, 06/05/2020, 14/05/2020, 20/05/2020, 27/05/2020, 08/06/2020, 11/06/2020 & 12/06/2020

As per Order read 1st, Government had accorded permission to utilize the services of Passed Out House Surgeons from Govt. Medical Colleges at periphery level of Health Services in wake of COVID -19 pandemic. Accordingly posting of outgoing interns were ordered vide this office orders read 2nd based on the list forwarded from Medical Colleges. It was specified in the posting orders that their period of posting will be for a period of three months from the actual date of joining duty and further service condition regarding their posting will be communicated later. At present, it is noted that very few interns have joined as per the orders and this is totally contradictory to the intension to which such posting were made in wake of COVID-19 pandemic.

In the above circumstances, it is hereby instructed that the doctors posted vide order read 2nd should join duty before 30/06/2020 after completing permanent registration formalities from TCMC or else proper reason for inability to join duty should be furnished. The details of doctors who fail to join duty without proper reason will be forwarded to Travancore Cochin Medical Council/Government for further action.
