The Gandhigram Institute of Rural Health and Family Welfare Trust, Gandhigram, Tamil Nadu, is a pioneer institution in commencing the Diploma in Health Education (DHE) course in the year 1964, catering to the needs of appointing Health Educators as Block Health Educators / Block Extension Educators. This course was then upgraded and converted into Post Graduate Diploma in Health Promotion & Education (PGDHPE) course in the year 2002. The course curriculum was developed by involving the policy-makers and programme executives both from Central and State Governments. The objective of the course is to produce Health Education specialists who will promote the implementation of National Health programmes under National Health Mission (NHM), health care delivery and development of healthy behavior among people.

The Post Graduate Diploma in Health Promotion and Education Course is affiliated to the Tamil Nadu Dr. M.G.R. Medical University, Chennai, in the year 1988. It is a one year professional and residential course. The student's sanctioned intake is 30 per batch in a year.
