

The Required Documents to be submitted to the Appropriate Authority for obtaining Eligibility Certificate for Intending Couple, Eligibility Certificate for Surrogate Mother and Essentiality Certificate for Intending Couple.

1. Certificate of Recommendation from the District Medical Board. (Reference ART Regulation Act 2021 and Surrogacy Act 2021) Regulation.
2. An order concerning the parentage and custody from the First Class Judicial Magistrate. The order may also contain the following statement "The intending couple do not have any biological or adopted or surrogate child"
3. If the above sentence cannot be included in the parentage and custody order; separate Notary Certification is required.
4. An Insurance coverage for a period of 36 Months covering Postpartum delivery complications form an insurance company(From the approved list mentioned in this site).
5. Original registered marriage certificates of both intending couple and surrogate woman.
6. Original Birth Certificate of Baby of Surrogate woman.
7. Notarised willingness of surrogate woman and willingness of her husband in a language which He/ She understands.
8. In case of death of husband of the Surrogate woman – Original Death Certificate.
9. A certificate of Medical and Psychological Fitness for Surrogacy procedures from Registered Medical Practitioner within Six Months.
10. Age proof of both Intending couple and Surrogate woman(Birth certificate/S.S.L.C book /10th certificate /School Admission Extract attested by the Head of the Educational Institution)

2/5/2024.
Dr. V. Meenakshy
Additional Director
Directorate of Health Services
PEN. NO: 678746

