ORDER No.ES1-51488/2014/DHS/dtd.01/01/2016.

In the Order dt.26/03/2014 of the Hon'ble Kerala Administrative Tribunal in OA(EKM) 68/2014/filed by Sri.Shahabudheen.V, Junior Health Inspector Gr.II & others directed the first respondent, Secretary, H&FWD to consider and pass Orders on Annexure A6 to A13 appeals in accordance with law after affording an opportunity of being heard to the applicants and other affected persons within four months from the date of receipt of copy of the Order.

As Ordered by the Tribunal, Government have heard the applicants on 24/07/2014. The main argument of the applicants is that in the case of PSC hands, the seniority is to be considered as per Rule – 27(c) of Part - II KS & SSR i.e., the date of advice. But in the case of by transfer appointment, the seniority is to be considered on the date of arising vacancy after acquisition of prescribed qualification.

As per Rule 28 (bb) Part II KS & SSR, it is the date of occurrence of vacancy that is crucial for determining the question for promotion. The departmental hands entitled to get seniority in the post only from the date of occurrence of vacancy on or after date in which he becomes qualified to the post, as per special Rules.

In this connection Government have directed to this office vide GO cited 2nd above to revise the seniority positions of applicants in OA (EKM) 68/2014 and assign due seniority from the date of occurrence of vacancy on or after the date on which they were qualified.

Accordingly it was proposed to reassign the rank and seniority positions of the following incumbents after considering their date of entry in service, completion of probation, date of acquisition of qualification and occurrence of vacancy. A notice was issued vide read 4th above for inviting appeals. Appeals received in this regard have been examined in detail and found no merit. Accordingly the proposal issued vide notice 4th above is finalized. The details are shown below.
